SLEEPING CAR PULLMAN

CHRISTENS HIS COTTAGE IN THE THOUSAND ISLANDS.

One Hundred Invited Guests Participate
in the Affair—Description of a Summer House Which Cost Its Owner Over One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

CLAYTON, N. Y., Aug. 17.—There was great festivity on Pullman's Island, in the midst of the Thousand Islands, Wednesday night. It marked the close of the two days' celebration with which the sleeping car magnate has christened his $100,000 summer cottage. A hundred invited guests participated, and everything was on the most lavish scale. The illumination of the island was magnificent.

It is not every man, even a millionaire,
who will go to an outlay of considerably over $100,000 for a residence which he does not expect to occupy more than a couple of months in the year. This, however, is what the head and front of the greatest sleeping car system in the world has done.
The cottage, as he calls it, or the palace, as the architects describe it, which has just been opened according to the foregoing dispatch, has been in course of erection for over one year. The island upon which it is located is only 300 feet long by 100 wide, but it presents a wild and picturesque appearance, the surface being rocky and precipitous and a dense growth of pine forming a background.

Once on a time a convent was located on this island, and rumor has it that many of its inmates were laid to rest beneath the forest trees. The new residence is built much after the style of an English shooting lodge. A dozen styles of architecture are employed, and in appearance it may be said to be a realization of a poet's dream. The basement is one hundred feet by fifty, hewn out of the solid rock, while the house proper is thirty-six feet square, four stories high, with attic and basement. In the center of the house is a tower eight feet square and twenty-five feet high, while around the outside is a rude terrace with steps leading down to the boathouse at the water's edge.
The ground floor is of stone, all above it of stained shingles.

On the first floor is a large reception room, butler's pantry, sleeping room, and a dining room, with a fireplace big enough to roast an ox. The interior is of heavy oak with massive casements and oaken doors of antique pattern. The upper portion of the house is divided into sleeping apartments for guests, except the upper story of the tower,
which will be used as a card room and observation room, from which an excellent view of the river and the surrounding country can be had. The furniture and draperies are of the most magnificent and costly character, while both house and island is illuminated by electric light. The island is reached by steamer from Clayton and the mansion will be filled with guests for the next two months. It will cost a fortune
every year to keep it up.

A DOUBLE MURDER.

Two Louisville Officers Stabbed to Death
By One of the "Dirty Dozen."

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 17.—Officers Joe Rosenberg and James Jones were killed
Wednesday night about 2 o'clock, in No. 92
Lafayette street. The house where the murder was committed is inhabited by what is known as the "Dirty Dozen," and is owned by James Wigginton.

Charles Dilger, a notorious man, employed for a time as special watchman at the Buckingham theater, did the killing, assisted by his mistress, "Buggie" Burns. Dilger had gone into the front room in the second story, where the Burns woman was. He had been drinking and was considerably under the influence of whisky. A quarrel took place between him and the woman, and loud cries of "Police," "Murder," and "Help," were heard
coming from the house.

Police Officers Jones and Rosenberg hurried to the place, and had placed the belligerents under arrest, when Dilger declined to go, and whipped out a knife and stabbed
Jones three times, once in the right temple and twice over the heart. Jones died instantly. Rosenberg had but one wound, and that over the right temple. Dilger escaped, but was captured at 4:30 a. m., at the home of his brother.

A $1,000,000 Thief.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Von Oberkampff, the mail box robber in jail here, states that there is an organized gang of postoffice robbers working in every state in the Union under one managing head, named Charles Edwards, and that he was the dupe of the latter. Postoffice Inspector Kidder places no faith in his statements. It is said that the aggregate value of the stolen documents recovered from Von Oberkampff's rooms will foot up $1,000,000 in checks, drafts, money orders, etc.

Four Vessels to Be in the Race.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—The World calls attention to the fact that four of the fastest of the Atlantic steamships sail for the other side on Saturday next, viz: The La Bourgogne, Umhria, City of New York and Enns.
While the captains of these vessels will not admit that such is the case, the World intimates that it is intended by each of them to endeavor to break the record for fast time between this country and Europe.

Scale Signed at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 17.—The scale of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers has been signed by the Neidring-haus rolling mill, and the new scale, which advances the wages of 200 of the employees 10 per cent., will go into effect next Monday.
President Weihe, of the National association,
has left for home.

Fearful Bush Fires.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—A dispatch from Kingston, Ont., says: Bush fires have been raging fiercely in the townships of Clarendon, Davant, Canont and Oso, and have already done damage to the extent of nearly $500,000.

ON THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

Several Persons Injured by a Collision at South Lawn.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—A serious collision is reported as having occurred on the Illinois Central railroad at South Lawn, nineteen miles south of this city, about 7:45 o'clock a.
m. An Illinois Central passenger train bound for Chicago came in collision with a freight train. Many killed and injured were reported.

At the offices of the Illinois Central the assistant superintendent said there was no loss of life so far as he had been advised by the trainmen at the wreck, though he believed there were some persons seriously injured.

The accident, he said, occurred in this way: About 5 o'clock the Cincinnati passenger train of the Illinois Central, due here at 6:45 a. m., ran into a freight train of the Grand Trunk at South Lawn, nineteen miles from the city. As soon as intelligence of the disaster reached the city the master mechanic of the railroad started for the scene on a special wrecking train.

The following additional particulars have been received by the train masters: The engine, tender, baggage car and one coach of the express were piled up in confusion and were thrown from the track. When the debris was cleared sufficiently it was found that seven people were injured more or less, though none are fatally hurt. The victims
are as follows:

Anderson Cobb, porter of the sleeper.
Thomas Spaine, baggage man.
Mrs. Spaine, his wife.
John Cronk, fireman.
W. B. Land, passenger.
J. H. Sullivan, porter.
Jon Frazier, porter.

Arrangements were immediately made to send the wounded on a special train and have the injured cared for. Dr. Owens, physician of the Illinois Central road, sent word that he did not believe the injuries were serious in any case. The injured passengers were immediately transferred to another train.

The blame for the accident is laid on those in charge of the passenger train, and they allege that the air brakes failed to act.

NO NEW CASES.

Good News From the Yellow Fever
Stricken City.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Surgeon General
Hamilton has received a telegram from Dr.
Neal Mitchell at Jacksonville, Fla., as follows:

"Official bulletin for twenty-four hours
ending 6 p. m. 15th inst.: New fever cases, none; deaths, none; under treatment, twenty-three."

In view of the discontinuance of the passenger service to Chattanooga, Dr.
Urquhart has been authorized to send a fumigating car to Chattanooga. Surgeon General Hamilton has informed a surgeon
in the Marine hospital service, who applied for leave of absence, that no more leaves will be approved at present, as "all the officers of the service are needed at their respective stations in view of emergencies which may arise."

The Goldsboro Board of Health.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 17.—The following has been issued by the board of health:

"We, the undersigned members of the board of health in the city of Goldsboro, assembled in meeting this day, declare that there has not been and is not now a single case of yellow fever in this city. The only case that would have given rise to the report that there was yellow fever here is that of a young man who came from Florida and went direct to his father's residence, one mile from this city, and was taken sick, which case is pronounced yellow fever. The place being quarantined and isolated we apprehend no danger, and so declare to all people."

The Outlook Hopeful.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 17.—No new cases of yellow fever and no deaths reported up to noon. The weather is delightful and the outlook very hopeful.

Down in Virginia.

PETERSBURG, Va., Aug. 17.—Ivor, Southampton county, this state, was the scene of a sensational cowhiding affair Tuesday afternoon, the parties being two of the best known and most respectable citizens of the country. The assault was the outgrowth of a remark made by one of the parties in reference to the daughter of the other. The parties were separated before either of them had been much injured. Intelligence received here late is to the effect that the men went to Berlin, a few miles from Southampton, to settle the matter satisfactorily. Both were accompanied by friends. Berlin is some distance from any telegraph station.

A Hoosier Stabbing Affray.

GOSHEN, Ind., Aug. 17.—Tuesday night
John Ross, of Wakarusa, this county, was seriously, though it is thought not fatally, stabbed by Joseph Greenwood. Ross claims that as he was leaving a saloon about midnight he was attacked by Greenwood and stabbed, and he says the enmity was caused by his testifying against Greenwood in a recent trial. Greenwood is in jail here.

Will Hang Tuesday.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Judge Patterson
to-day refused to grant a stay of execution
in the case of Daniel Lyons for the murder of Athlete Quinn. He will be hanged Tuesday next. Lyons, on being informed by his counsel of the judge's decision, took the matter coolly, and simply remarked: "Well,
we must now prepare for the funeral."

Reunion of Telegraphers.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The annual reunion of the ex-Military Telegraphers' association
and the old time telegraph operators is now in session at Gore's hotel. The day will be devoted to business meetings. To-morrow afternoon there will be a lake excursion, and in the evening a banquet at Kinsley's. About one hundred and fifty members are in attendance.

Brickmakers Want Work.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—The strike of the 1,400
brickmakers in the twenty-one yards located on the north side of the city and Lake View and Jefferson is over. All but 500 of the strikers have returned to work at whatever wages they could get and the remaining 500
are willing to accept the same terms, but at present there is no place for them.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

THAT AMOUNT OF COUNTERFEIT
MONEY TO BE DESTROYED.

The Coin to Be Melted and the Paper to Be Macerated—Some of the Work of Counterfeit Smith Pronounced Equal
to That Produced By the Government.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—One million dollars in coin and notes will be destroyed, by order of the treasury department, within the next few days. The money is, however, counterfeit. The counterfeit coin consists,
in the main, of dollars and half dollar pieces.
The aggregate amount is $62,000. It will be carted to the navy yards, where it will be placed in a huge crucible and melted. Its weight, in round numbers, is 2,500 pounds.
When taken from the crucible it will be sold to junk dealers for old lead.

The notes, the face value of which is $1,000,000, will be destroyed by macera-tion, the same as all condemned paper money
in which is sent to the treasury department for redemption. Such of these notes as were engraved by Charley Smith, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are regarded experts superior to those issued by the bureau of engraving and printing. Smith counterfeited a number of six per cent. $100 United States bonds, which were so skillfully executed that bank officials of Chicago purchased them readily, and when told they were counterfeit refused to believe it. These bonds, as well as a number of counterfeit notes on the Reserve bank of Boston and Pittsfield National bank, will be retained from the general slaughter as evidence of the highest development of the counterfeiters' skill.

HIS GOLDEN JUBILEE.

Father Sorin, of South Bend, Indiana,
Appropriately Celebrates It.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 17.—The Church
of the Sacred Heart was consecrated Wednesday. Bishop Dwenger officiated, assisted by Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Elder and other dignitaries. High mass was celebrated by the cardinal. In his sermon he commended the intense Americanism of Father Sorin, and commended it to all foreigners who came to this country to make it their home. Father Sorin had come to this country just at the right time. His opportunity was at Notre Dame and he made the most of it.

High mass was concluded at 12:30, and dinner was then served to several hundred.
Father Sorin presided at the table of honor,
with the cardinal on his right and Archbishop Elder on his left. The others at this table were Archbishop Ireland, Bishops
Dwenger, Ryan, Spaulding, Gilmour, Father
Granger and Judge P. B. Ewing, of Lancaster, O. After dinner speeches were made by Cardinal Gibbons and others, congratulatory of Father Sorin. There was a procession around the lake and at night a brilliant display of fireworks.

It was the fiftieth anniversary of the priesthood of Father Sorin, the illustrious founder of the order of the Holy Cross, and is notable in the history of Catholicism in general and Notre Dame in particular. He is at the head of the Holy Cross order for the whole world and has won for it hosts of friends. This was proven by the long tables filled with gifts from every part of the world. Their variety, too, is great as their number. They came from the poorest as well as the wealthiest.

There are vestments of satin and gold of exquisite workmanship and great cost, all of finest silk. There is a wonderful bit of lace that represents over three years of handiwork, and cannot be worth less than $3,000.
Of books, furniture, wearing apparel, jewels,
pictures and articles adapted for use about the altars and in the church service there is no end. All these gifts have been inspected by thousands of people.

Collision on the Hudson.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 17.—A collision occurred Wednesday night near Catskill Point with the steamboat Saratoga, of the Troy line, and the schooner Holbrook.
The schooner was sunk. It is claimed that the schooner failed to show lights and that the collision occurred from this cause. The Saratoga was not damaged and outside of her passengers receiving a slight scare, none were hurt. No lives were lost on the schooner.

They Didn't Swap Wives.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 17.—The story sent out from this city several days ago that two men named Brooks and Van Patten, living near Cleveland, Tenn., exchanged wives untrue. Van Patten, one of the parties named, making an affidavit to the latter effect. He also states that Mr. and Mrs.
Brooks are honorable, upright people, and that Mrs. Van Patten is also a virtuous and strictly moral lady.

severe at Bayou Sara, Baton Rouge and along the Mississippi gulf coast.

teen hundred men have been paid and laid

MARIETTA'S SCOURGE.

Seven of the Alumni Banqueters Dead.
The Fatalities Likely to Increase.

MARIETTA, O., Aug. 17.—There have been up to date, seven deaths resulting from the alumni banquet of Marietta college, June 20.
Of the banqueters, the following are known to be dead:

Professor Beach, of the college.
Frank H. Chamberlain, of Marietta.
George P. Dye, of Marietta.
Professor J. D. Phillips, of Harmar.
William H. Fankhouser, of Sardis, Monroe county.

Albert Coulter, clerk to Mayor Coulter, of Marietta.
Charles Price, of Morgan county.

Possibly other deaths have occurred among the guests from different points. Professor Beach, it is said, died of brain affection, but the weight of opinion is that his fatal illness
developed from the banquet, and changed form as the termination was reached. Young Mr. Price was subject to epilepsy, and it is probable that this was complicated with typhoid. There were only seventy-five feasters present, and yet more than twenty of them have been ill.

That the disease is typhoid fever is generally agreed, and it has been finally settled as most likely that it was conveyed through the ice cream. It is thought that the milk was impregnated with the germs of the disease, and in this way carried to the banqueters. It is true also that those who did not eat ice cream were not made sick.

It is contended by some that the water
used in the lemonade was also impregnated.
Several more may yet die.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND,
of New York.

For Vice President,
ALLAN G. THURMAN,
of Ohio.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Democrats of the Ninth Congressional District: I beg leave to submit to you my name in connection with the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district. I have no claims to urge over those of any other true Democrat, and make my announcement with some degree of timidity. I hope to make the primary contest in such a manner as not to create dissension or division in the ranks of the party, and, whether I lose or win the nomination, I propose to remain the same unflinching Democrat I have always been. Respectfully,
G. R. KELLAR.
Carlisle, Ky., July 17, 1888.

The Vanguard, of Ripley, has been enlarged and otherwise improved. It is correct on political questions and is engaged in teaching sound Democracy.

Why not decorate the city on an extensive scale next week in honor of the convention and fair? Let the delegates and fair visitors see Maysville in her best colors.

The Lexington Leader in giving a list of the Republican clubs of this State credits "The Republican League of Springfield" to Mason County. Such an organization cannot be found in this county with a search warrant.

The Chicago Herald characterizes Jas. G. Blaine as a "habitual, persistent and inveterate falsifier," and adds that "he never makes a truthful statement where a false assertion will appear stronger." This is strong language, but the general opinion is that the "Plumed Knight" is one of the most unscrupulous men—politically—this country ever produced.

The present Democratic administration has restored over 80,000,000 acres of land to the public domain. This is now open to entry and settlement, but most of it was formerly fraudulently held by railroad monopolists. But the work has not yet ended. It is proposed to recover almost as much more, namely, 65,020,528 acres under railroad forfeitures now before Congress, resurveys ordered reducing area of claims and suits recommended to vacate patents. If all this is accomplished, there will have been restored under President Cleveland 145,711,258 acres of public land. This is strong evidence showing which party is on the side of the people.

Falsifying Himself.

What must the honest-hearted, truth-loving people, irrespective of party, think of James G. Blaine? They certainly can not hold him in very high esteem. His whole career in political life has marked him as an unscrupulous man. His talk since his return from abroad does not serve to better him in the eyes of his countrymen. He no sooner set foot on his native shores than he began talking on the tariff question and trying to delude and mislead the people. Here is what he said, a few days ago: "It is the opportunity of England; it is the long-looked for occasion upon which the cheaper labor and the cheaper fabrics of the old world expect to invade the new and lower the wages of American workmen to the European standard. Whether the great mass of American citizens who earn their bread by the sweat of their brow shall be seriously reduced in their emolument from day to day—that is the whole pith and moment of this question. Anything that diverts the question from that single point is a weakening of the campaign."

Now let honest, candid people—Republicans and Democrats—contrast the above utterance with the following, which this same James G. Blaine said when he was Secretary of State under President Garfield only a few years ago. Here are his words: "Undoubtedly the inequalities of English and American operatives are more than equalized by the greater efficiency of the latter and their longer hours of labor."

Would it not be wise for the "Plumed Knight" to stop talking on this subject until he can make his statements a little more consistent? The American people are too intelligent to be misled by Mr. Blaine or any one else.

Tariff—Does It Protect Labor?

The average rate of duty under the Hamilton tariff of 1795, when our industries could truthfully plead infancy, was only 11.21 per cent. The war tariff of 1812 averaged only 32.76 per cent. The average rate on all imports under the tariff of 1832 was 28.99 per cent. and on dutiable articles 38.25 per cent. Under the "compromise tariff" of 1842 the average rate was 19.25 per cent. Under the Whig tariff of 1842, which was then considered radically protective, the average rate on all imports was 26.92 per cent. Under the Walker tariff of 1846 the average rate on all imports was 23.20 per cent., and on dutiable articles 26.22 per cent. Under the tariff of 1857 the rate was 15.66 per cent. and on dutiable articles 20.12 per cent. Under the Morrill war tariff of 1861 the average rate on all imports was 34.74 per cent., and on dutiable articles 47.60. Under the Mills bill just passed by the Democratic House of Representatives the average is fixed at 42.49 per cent. The Morrill tariff schedule of 1861 contained less than fifteen hundred dutiable articles while the Mills bill embodies a schedule of nearly four thousand. Does this look anything like free trade?

On the other hand if the tariff protects labor, American workmen after twenty-seven years of protection should be universally prosperous, contented and happy. Yet the third annual report of Hon. Carroll D. Wright, United States Commissioner of Labor, shows that in the six years ending with 1886 there were strikes in 22,336 establishments in this country. Of these 18,342, or 82.12 per cent., were ordered by labor organizations. During the same period there were lock-outs in 2,182 establishments. Of these, 1753, or 80.34 per cent. were ordered by combinations of managers. Of the strikes, 16,692, or 74.74 per cent., and of the lock-outs 1,931, or 90.8 per cent., were in the States of Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois, where protection is said to have showered its blessings on the laboring man. These facts point like index fingers to the terrific struggle between the "trusts" and the "combines" for their millions of dividends on one hand and the millions of wage-earners, battling against poverty, hunger and starvation for themselves, their wives and children on the other. At every point in this struggle the fact stands out that the tariff is the combine's protection and the laborer's tax.

The Floating Palace Show.

The arrival of Eugene Robinson's three floating palaces at the wharf attracted a large crowd of spectators to the afternoon and evening performances. The boats are handsome affairs, and both on the interior and exterior everything is as neat and clean as a new pin. The museum and menagerie departments are as fine as any seen here for some time, and are alone well worth the price of admission charged. The grand opera house boat is fitted out in a magnificent manner and is as cozy as any theatre in the country. The programme is excellent, consisting of specialties by first-class artists, and pantomimes by Robinson's original Australian company.

In the museum the life-size wax figures of the eight Chicago Anarchists attract considerable attention. The attraction is a fine one from beginning to end, and no one should miss seeing it before it leaves.—Wheeling Intelligence.

These floating palaces are now at the public landing. Performances to-night, to-morrow afternoon and to-morrow night. Seats can be reserved at Taylor's news depot.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Discussion of Various Topics by the Teacher's of Mason County.
List of Those Enrolled.

The institute was called to order Thursday morning by Superintendent Galbraith. The opening exercises consisted of song by the members of the institute and scriptural reading and prayer by Professor R. N. Roark.

After appropriate remarks from the Superintendent the subject "Some Things We Need and How to Get Them" was presented by Professor R. N. Roark. The following are the most important mentioned by him, viz: First, love for our work for its own sake; second, professional spirit and unity; third, professional reading of books and papers; fourth, better County Superintendents; fifth, better legislation; sixth, State Normal School. We can get them by uniting and working as one body under Kentucky's grand old motto. He was followed by Professor Kappes, Superintendent Galbraith and Mr. Chandler, all of whom made some very timely remarks.

The next subject on the programme "Mental against Written Arithmetic" was then taken up and a very lively discussion followed, participated in by Messrs. Chandler, Berry, Hall, Kiser and others. "Methods of Discipline" was presented to the institute by Professor Roark, who, in an especially interesting manner advanced ideas which were eminently practical in the teacher's every-day work.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The institute was called to order by County Superintendent and upon invitation Professor Roark, after recommending some works which will be of great help to the teacher in his work took up the subject of "County School Exposition." His recommendations on this subject were good, and if carried out by the teachers will result in the gain of knowledge on the part of their pupils. He was followed by County Superintendent whose remarks met the approval of all.

"Reviews; Their Value as a Training Exercise," was very creditably handled by Professor Josiah Wilson.

Dr. Honan's handling of the subject of "Hygiene" was instructive and displayed his knowledge of the subject as well as the fact that his mind is fraught with rich thoughts.

Professor Roark's summary for the evening was quite praiseworthy and presented to the institute many novel ideas.

The query box was again opened and some very useful questions were found for the members of the institute to answer.

The following resolution introduced by Professor Hall was adopted.

Resolved, That this institute tender Professor R. N. Roark its thanks for his very able and instructive conduct of the exercises during the past four days.

The institute adjourned until 9 a. m. to-day.

Following is a list of the teachers enrolled so far:

Ella B. Metcalfe, Sallie Burrows, Mary D. Toup, Belle Golling, Fannie Ray, Sue Grant, Lida McIlvain, Sue Wright, Emma Browning, Anna Campbell, Eleanor Wallace, Ida M. Richards, Hayes Thomas, Lullie McIlvain, Josiah Wilson, B. F. Williams, Clarence Martin, Wm. M. Scott, H. B. Collins, Jas. H. McGowan, J. B. Applegate, O. B. Kiser, C. J. Hall, W. T. Berry, Mary P. Chambers, F. A. Savage, Anna L. Fristoe, Tina Bledsoe, S. A. Rawlins, L. A. Wallingford, J. T. Tarleton, Mrs. M. H. McDaniel, Willa Burgoyne, Lizzie Davis, W. T. Pollitt, Ida Mayhugh, Dora Edgington, Alice Dorsey, Wm. Cook, W. R. Chandler, H. C. Smith, Anna Perrie, Anna Rhodes, N. G. Brodt, Lotta Wilson, Lizzie Orr, Huldah Johnson, T. V. Chandler.

"Ingomar."

The audience at O'Brien's Opera House almost filled the spacious walls. Miss Marie Prescott and Mr. R. D. McLean and their associates in the beautiful romantic drama, "Ingomar," were the attraction. There was not one of the five acts of the thrilling drama that was not rendered replete with fine effects by the easy efforts of the clever couple.

Miss Prescott's "Parthenia" is truly a charming impersonation. Her sweet carriage, her sweet voice, always thrilling with the full effect of the motive of every situation, her many graces of accent and self-poise established her a welcome appearance from the moment the stage was honored with her presence. She seemed lit in person and feature to interpret every noble expression of a play, full of sentiment and romantic situations.

Mr. McLean is an actor among the youngest on the stage; he is possessed of unmistakable talents, has notably superior physique, and goes at his work in a way that denotes a rare degree of intelligent perception of what is required of him.

Miss Prescott's presence was greeted with unstinted applause whenever she appeared, and the honors of approval were as liberally bestowed upon Mr. McLean.—Birmingham (Ala.) Age, Nov. 1, 1887.

Miss Prescott and company will appear Wednesday, Aug. 22nd, at the opera house in the above romantic drama. Reserved seat tickets on sale at Taylor's news depot.

At Ruggles.

The association met on the 15th and elected the following Board of Directors for the year 1889: I. M. Lane, John Walsh, Dr. William Bowman, Thomas Ruggles, Rev. Thomas Hanford preacher in charge at Maysville; Rev. William Childers, Tollesboro; Rev. J. H. Marriott Vanceburg.

The meetings are increasing in interest. Next Sunday will be the last day. Go and hear a great preacher, Rev. Dr. Pearne, of Cincinnati.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST.

A View of the Field—Most of the Delegates Uninstructed.

The convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, will meet in Washington Opera House next Tuesday at noon.

There are fourteen counties in the district and taking the Cleveland vote as the basis these counties will be entitled to the following representation in the convention:

Bath.....	6
Boyd.....	6
Bracken.....	9
Carter.....	6
Fleming.....	8
Greenup.....	5
Lawrence.....	4
Lewis.....	6
Marion.....	1
Mason.....	13
Nicholas.....	7
Robertson.....	2
Rowan.....	2
Total.....	82

It will require a fraction over forty-one votes to nominate, and none of the various candidates will go into the convention with enough instructed delegates to secure the coveted honor. So far as learned the recent county conventions resulted as follows:

FOR PAYNTER.
Fleming.....	8
Greenup.....	5
Total.....	13

FOR KELLAR.
Nicholas.....	7
Robertson.....	2
Total.....	9

FOR CASTLE.
Lawrence.....	7

FOR BASCOM.
Bath.....	6
Rowan.....	2
Total.....	8

UNINSTRUCTED.
Boyd.....	6
Bracken.....	9
Carter.....	6
Lewis.....	6
Mason.....	13
Total.....	40

NOT HEARD FROM.
Johnson.....	4
Marion.....	1
Total.....	5

A good deal of "dark horse" talk is heard. The indications point to a harmonious convention.

The advice of the Courier-Journal should be heeded, and no representative of the factional fights that have lost the district in the past should receive the nomination.

Fair Notes.

The walk or promenade at the front of the amphitheatre has been cut away and lowered to the ground.

At Harrodsburg Wednesday Bosque Bonita won the 2:26 purse, best time 2:34. This trotter is entered in the 3:00 class here.

A judicious and liberal use of the white wash brush on fences, and out-buildings has given the grounds a neat appearance.

There is no longer any doubt that the fair will eclipse all former meetings, and it promises to be the "blue ribbon fair" of the State.

During the fair, the Hattie Brown will carry passengers from Dover to this city at 30 cents round trip. The railroad has brought the fare down.

Mr. George W. Rogers, superintendent of the floral hall, gives notice that he will be at the hall Tuesday, August 21st, to receive articles intended for exhibition.

Secretary James W. Fitzgerald is one of the busiest members of the company. Every mail brings letters from every direction from parties desiring information of some sort as to the meeting.

It is suggested that everybody decorate their residences and places of business during the week. The city will be crowded with visitors to the convention and fair, and they should see our town in her gayest colors.

Colonel K. P. Pepper's stable of trotters, with the exception of Hour, arrived from Frankfort to-day. In the lot are the following thoroughbred trotters: Linnette, Rutledge, Susette and Tarmetta, and the pacer Cogac.

The race of the week will be on Thursday when the crack four-year-olds Hour, Susie S. and others will contest for the Hechinger stakes. Hour has been at the stables several days and is in splendid condition. Susie S. will be here the first of the week from Richmond.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a recent meeting of the Sunday school of the Central Presbyterian Church, the following was adopted:

WHEREAS, This Sabbath school has learned of the unexpected death of Miss Sallie Daugherty, a teacher of our fold, therefore

Resolved, That it is with deepest feeling and unaffected regret that we have heard of the death of Miss Daugherty, a member universally esteemed and highly respected.

Resolved, That in her death this school has lost a conscientious and efficient teacher, consistent in her work and beloved by her pupils.

Resolved, That in this hour of affliction and grief we tender to her family so deeply stricken our most sincere condolence and profoundest sympathy.

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to transcribe these resolutions on the minutes of our school and that a copy be forwarded to the family.

THE SULTAN PROTESTS

AGAINST ITALY OCCUPYING ABYSSINIAN TERRITORY.

John Bull Alarmed at the Future of His Brewing Interests—Boulanger the Cause of a Riot in Amiens—A Movement to Suppress Slave Trade—Foreign.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 17.—The Porte has sent a circular note to the powers regarding the occupation of Massowah by Italy. In it the Porte maintains the sovereign rights of the Sultan over the whole of the eastern and western coasts of the Red sea, and declares that the Italian occupation of Massowah is a violation of existing treaties.

Almost time out of mind Massowah has been held by the Turk or his vassal of Egypt. However, in their eagerness to appropriate the waste places of the earth, the strong nations of Europe pay no regard to either long vested rights or later treaty rights in dealing with the weaker ones. It is Italy's opportunity, while she has the backing both of England and the triple alliance as against France, as against France, as quickly as possible, before the situation changes, to grab all she can. So today it is announced that the Italian fleet, in the name of Italy, has occupied Korn, fifty miles northwest of Massowah. Meanwhile France, Greece and Turkey have protested, and Russia has not been heard from.

The Porte is extremely hard pushed for money to pay the army, and frantic efforts are being made to effect a loan. The Albanian garrison at Metzovo, owing to non-receipt of their wages, undertook to sack the town. They killed several Christians, plundered their shops, and burned ten houses. A famine prevails in Epirus, and serious disorders have occurred.

The fact is, Turkey is in a bad way financially, and the Sultan refuses to sanction the temporary shift of borrowing $1,500,000 from Turkish bankers. Turkey has debts to meet and Russia is her most dangerous creditor, who may at any moment seize upon territory to guarantee the payment of her indemnity. She must, moreover, prepare for defense, and she lacks the means. England seems to be her only resource, and her agent is on a secret mission there now.

The Breweries of England.
LONDON, Aug. 17.—There is a grave, and it would seem well-founded, anxiety concerning the future of what has been for many generations one of the most prominent British industries. It has been a matter of almost religious belief in the mind of the Briton that the product of his breweries surpassed in quality the beer of any other land, and the quantity consumed here and exported hitherto has naturally confirmed his confidence in the domestic article. The fortunes made by the prominent brewers have been princely, and they have spent them like princes. Some of them have been knighted in acknowledgment of their benefactions, and Dr. Johnson's pompous promulgation of the value of Thrale's plant has become proverbial.

But there is a suspicion that the British brewer has seen his best days. The exports of beer to the United States have fallen off greatly, and those to the colonies are becoming smaller yearly. The French never took kindly to the heady product of their insular neighbor and the enormously increased consumption of beer in France, owing to the impossibility of procuring genuine wine at a moderate price, has accrued to the benefit of Germany, although to avoid a natural prejudice the "Becks" are popularly supposed to come from Belgium.

Physicians in Australia and India have condemned the strong beer of the mother country, and the expatriated Briton has become aware that in such climates he gratifies his prejudice at the expense of his liver. At home, too, the unkindest cut of all, the gradually increasing sentiment in favor of moderation in the use of stimulants has led Englishmen of the upper class to prefer the light Bavarian and Vienna beers at luncheon or other times when wine is not in vogue. Having gained the favor of the swells the custom, as might be expected, has been enthusiastically adopted by the aspirants to swelldom and the consequence is that the British brewers find their trade fearfully cut into by their continental rivals.

The latter have a reputation for honesty of manufacture, while the former are but entirely above suspicion in that regard. The despotic Teutonic authorities inspect the breweries and compel the purity of their product; nor is it allowed to be tampered with by the retailer. If some British makers bear a tolerably good reputation the retail beer seller is more than suspected of doctoring the liquor he deals out to his customers. A parliamentary report says: "The quantities of cocculus-indicus berries, as well as of black extract, brought into this country for the purpose of adulterating malt liquor are enormous." Other pleasing improvements are sulphate of iron, quassia, soda, potash carbonate of lime, sulphuric acid, etc. The English workman will cling for some time to come, no doubt, to the beverage he has quaffed from his childhood, as it has the desired bite; which the publican takes care it shall not lack, but it is safe to say that the brewing business will never be again what it has been. One well known company is in serious difficulties, and two others of world-wide celebrity are confessedly shaky, shrewd parties connected with the latter for years have withdrawn their capital, and it is no secret that they have invested it in a gigantic brewing enterprise in the United States.

Boulanger Makes Trouble.
PARIS, Aug. 17.—Gen. Boulanger's arrival at Amiens Wednesday resulted in several conflicts between the rival political parties. During the fighting several persons were wounded. A number of arrests were made. At a banquet given in his honor at Amiens Gen. Boulanger made a violent speech against the parliamentary republic. He left the town amid a great tumult. One person was seriously injured.

Boulanger is making a desperate effort to sustain his falling influence. He has little Republican support, and seems to be throwing himself wholly into the arms of the reactionaries, Royalists and Bonapartists.

To Suppress the Slave Trade.
BRUSSELS, Aug. 17.—In the cathedral at Brussels Cardinal Lavigerie announced that he would form a committee to organize a volunteer expedition to the Tanganyika country to suppress the slave traffic. He estimated the cost at 1,000,000 francs, and invited subscriptions to a fund to defray the expenses.

This movement is not confined to Belgium. The cardinal and his confreres are preaching the crusade in England and elsewhere. It aims at a common European movement.

THE CENTENNIAL.

A Boom Begins Which is Likely to Last The Floral Displays.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 17.—Yesterday the centennial exposition took a boom. That boom is only supplemented in the increased crowds of to-day. Excursionists came in from all the roads this morning, and awaited in packed crowds about the turnstile gate to enter. And these railroad gates are always opened at 8 o'clock, an hour early. So it can be imagined how early the boom was on.

The flower display is alone worth the price of admission. The entire grand vestibule of Music hall is filled with these magnificent specimens of floral art. The pieces can only be mentioned. Space will not admit of description. It would take two columns to fittingly describe the floral pieces in detail. Every one of these competing florists worked from twelve to twenty men the whole night long in order to give these displays fresh and complete on time.

A unique and original design is their memorial to Gen. Sheridan, consisting of a broken column, broken sword, and our country's flag, all in flowers.

Liberati's band played a pot pourri of the airs of all nations yesterday afternoon, and when it came to the closing chorus of "My Country, 'tis of Thee," and the sonorous notes swelled out through every corridor of the exposition and leaped the vaulted roof, the applause was unbounded, and cheers went up with the music.

These are the last days of Ajeel, the automaton chess player. He bids farewell on Saturday night. He has proven a decided sensation, and has not lost over a half dozen games in the hundreds played, and with crack chess players, southeast tower of the south wing of Park hall.

The horticultural committee desires to call attention to the following floral days: August 23 and 30, September 4, 7, 11, 13, 18, 21—cut flowers, 25, 28, October 4—wedding room, 10—table decorations. The last week, from October 23 to 27, will be devoted entirely to chrysanthemum shows.

Can't Get the White Caps.

CORYDON, Ind., Aug. 17.—Attorney General Michener has been in consultation regarding the proposed prosecution of the White Caps. He said to a reporter that from all he can learn there is no organized band of White Caps here. There are occasional outbreaks, however, but they are merely local, inspired by local feelings against fellows in a community who have made themselves obnoxious by bad conduct. Farmers and citizens would club together and take such a person out and give him a flogging as the best and cheapest means of punishment.

Knocked Out With a Pitchfork.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Aug. 17.—Wednesday morning a serious difficulty took place at the driving park, near this city, between Quint Tyler, a colored hand, and Ed. Haley, a white rubber. During a quarrel Tyler suddenly jerked up a pitchfork and struck Haley a heavy blow over the back of the head with it. Tyler was arrested and is in jail. Haley is still unconscious, and the doctors think his skull is fractured.

Will Do the Killing in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 17.—The American Meat company, probably the most extensive cattle raising, cattle slaughtering and cattle owning organization in the world will soon begin shipping its cattle to this city for slaughter. The company has 4,000,000 acres of land in Mexico and New Mexico upon which it now has 425,000 head of cattle. All of the beef will be slaughtered in Kansas City. J. H. Flagler is president of the concern.

A Cherokee's Birthday.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 17.—Kamamuke, a celebrated Cherokee Indian, who is here with a band of Indians Wednesday night, celebrated his sixty-first birthday. The event is only celebrated once in five years, and is an important event with the Cherokees. Kamamuke gave an oration in his native tongue, after which he was given some fine presents, and the band indulged in a big pow-wow.
